Welcome to the Ram’s Horn!

The Ram’s Horn Restaurants are an independently owned, 3rd generation, Detroit founded franchise. In the 1940’s, James Kasapis founded the first family restaurant, Receiving Lunch, next to Receiving Hospital on Saint Antoine Ave. This is now the site of Detroit’s infamous Greek Town.

James’s sons, The Kasapis Brothers: Gus, Steve & Eugene, went on to create the 50+ year old Detroit Original – The Ram’s Horn. The first Ram’s Horn restaurant opened in 1967 in Cadillac Square. The family’s mission was to promote Michigan based products & companies, fresh ingredients, family style dining at affordable prices. They are vested in each community they serve, including employees, customers and charities.

The tradition continues with the 3rd Generation Kasapis’, collectively with franchisees, to keep Ram’s Horn as a relevant, Michigan born, Detroit based tradition for delicious fresh food. The original tag line for the Ram’s Horn still rings true today: “Let our family serve your family!”
